

Introduction

It's been a busy and rewarding six months for the Combis Sports Verein. It has been a period of challenges and opportunities, and today we want to take stock of our journey. In this document, we will discuss our achievements, our challenges and our aspirations for the future.

1. Financial and legal review for 2022

We would like to thank the outgoing Board for the work they have done during their term of office.

In terms of legalisation, we are registered with the Stuttgart District Court (Amtgericht), and our Articles of Association are also registered. Registration with the tax office (Finanzamt) to obtain the association's tax identification number (Steuernummer) was initiated by the new board and is currently underway.

All documents relating to these procedures are available on our Drive and can be accessed by members of the Board.

The cash balance at 26 February 2023 was €543.

2. The new Board and its mission for 2023-2024

The new board was elected on 26 February 2023 and its main role is to ensure that the association's objectives are met. This includes:

- Organising and taking part in tournaments and friendly matches.
- Promoting social cohesion.
- Encouraging members to pay membership fees to ensure the smooth running of the association.
- And the organisation of various activities such as grids, information meetings, etc.

The appointment of 11 July 2023 was kept by Roland Wandji (chairman) and Constantin Fahom (secretary) to sign the "application to change the board of directors", which will formalise the association's new board of directors. The documents were validated by the notary and sent to the Stuttgart District Court to finalise the process.

For the years 2023 and 2024, the Board has defined ambitious missions.

These are :

- Recruit new members to the association.
- Persuade former members to return to the group.
- Build a competitive and stable team for tournaments.
- To provide greater support to members of the association in times of joy and sorrow.
- Going beyond sport and organising festive and tasty get-togethers between members, seminars and meetings on integration in Germany and career planning.

3. Member registrations

As of 20 July 2023, our membership stood at 61, a significant increase boosted by the accession of 25 new members in the last three months. The vitality of our recruitment is due to the return of influential players, the attraction of the asylum camp close to the stadium and, above all, the unwavering commitment of everyone involved to excel and attract new members.

We are currently concentrating our efforts on ensuring that these new recruits pay their contributions on time. To date, only 29% of members (18 individuals) have paid their 2023 membership fees in full. 12 members (20%) have paid between €30 and €50, while the majority, 51%, have contributed less than €30. Of the latter, many only paid the €5 administration fee (26 people, i.e. 43% of members), and some did not contribute at all (5 members).

This low level of financial participation is putting a strain on our association's finances, resulting in a deficit of at least €2,350 in registration fees. What's more, it is fuelling a degree of frustration among members who have met their contribution obligations.

It's important to remember that these contributions are vital to our association. They enable us to finance our various outings during tournaments and friendly matches, as well as the organisation of festive events such as grilles. To encourage compliance with these obligations, we will shortly be announcing a deadline for the payment of unpaid contributions. Measures will be taken against recalcitrant members, ranging from removal from the WhatsApp group to a ban on taking part in the association's activities.

4. Balance sheet

Our treasurer, with the help of the auditor, is responsible for managing the association's finances. They keep a close eye on the money coming in and going out to ensure that the association is in good financial health.

4.2. Expenses

Our association's expenditure is mainly divided between the costs associated with travelling to tournaments and friendly matches, the costs incurred in organising the mini-tournament in May - which nevertheless generated a profit of €72 - and administrative costs, particularly those associated with legalising the association and postal services.

5. Sporting and social events in 2023

Our first half-year was marked by a series of friendly matches and tournaments, with several defeats and goals conceded. We also experienced some unfortunate events, such as the deaths of close friends of some of our members (mother Aimé and sister Hervé), but also moments of joy such as birthdays (daughter Koby, Roland, Consty) and weddings (Eric Kolleur) within our community.

One of our major upcoming events is our annual barbecue, scheduled for 12 August 2023 in Reutlingen, which promises to be a great opportunity for members to get together and exchange ideas.

6. The equipment

Our association has two sets of shirts (yellow and green), two sets of chasubles, three balls, a whistle and a first-aid box, the contents of which have yet to be checked. We're working on expanding our equipment to ensure that our future activities run smoothly.

7. Lessons learned and the way forward

The last six months have been full of learning experiences.

- a. In sporting terms, we still need to work on improving our level of play. We recognise that there are improvements to be made on the pitch, particularly in terms of communication and cooperation between the players.
- b. Despite these challenges, we have seen some positive aspects. During the recent mini-tournament in Schwäbisch Gmünd, and especially during the match against Kirchheim, we saw a great understanding on the pitch, proof that we are capable of playing together and defending our club colours with pride. There were real leaders on the pitch and a great joy in playing together and defending our club colours.
- c. The synergy within our team was undeniably evident in our last friendly match against the Turkish community, which we won with an impressive scoreline of 9-2 in our favour. It was particularly encouraging to see that the goals were scored by five different players, demonstrating the diversity and strength of our attacking ability.
- d. In addition, more members are returning to the association and are ready to contribute to its success.

- e. For the future, we plan to introduce a system of sanctions to curb excessive behaviour, such as swearing, getting into fights or deliberately throwing the ball out of play during training sessions.
- f. In addition, we will be working on the integration of members in Germany and will be giving priority to members who have paid their contributions in full when group decisions are taken.
- g. Finally, we have learned that there is strength in unity. It is by working together and respecting the values of our association that we will be able to achieve our ambitious goals. To this end, we hope that every member will continue to be actively involved in our activities and promote the spirit of conviviality that characterises our association.

Conclusion

All in all, this has been a period of growth and challenge for Combis Sports Verein. Despite the obstacles, we have shown resilience and are committed to continuing our efforts to achieve our goals. We look forward to embracing the future with enthusiasm, determination and unity. Our association is not just a sports club, it is a family that helps each other in times of joy and sorrow. We thank you for your continued support and look forward to sharing many more months with you in the Combis Sports Verein.
